22nd March 2010

Dear Friends,

The 8th Summer Vigor 2010 Mini Dragon Boat Races

Last year's Summer Vigor was a great success with a hundred teams participating. This large number of participants made all the races extremely competitive, and created a marvelous carnival atmosphere.

This year's Summer Vigor will take place on 4th July 2010. Details of the event and application form are attached herewith. Please send in your completed form on or before 26th May 2010.

If you would like to have more details, please contact Ms. Florence Cho (telephone no. 9262-5285 or e-mail to secretary@dragonboat-hk.org) or Ms. Lilac Tsang (telephone no. 9842 9019 or e-mail to lilactsang@yahoo.com). You may also check updated information by visiting our web site : www.dragonboat-hk.org.

We are looking forward to seeing you on 4th July 2010.

Cheers,

Chung Wai Man

Race Convener

All teams need to report to the marshalling area 20 minutes before commencement of each race for the preparation of embarkation, including the verification of crewmembers' identity. Latecomers will not be accepted.

Teams shall use only the boat so decided through the drawing of lots. No change of boat is allowed without the permission of the officials.

In each race, participating teams will align at the start line and remain stationary there waiting for the start signal. All teams must obey the instructions of the official. The race will start at the sounding of a horn. In case of a false start or a jump start, official will notify all teams by sounding another signal and all boats shall return immediately to the starting point for the second start. Any team failing to return as instructed or causing a second false start may be disqualified. In the case of a third start if necessary, if there is a jump start, the race will proceed whilst the offending team(s) will be disqualified.

All paddlers must stay seated during the race. Should a team be found standing or kneeling during the race, it will be disqualified.

In the course of a race, each boat must proceed in a straight line within its own lane and must not trespass into other lanes or cause interference to other racing boats. Teams that fail to comply with this will be disqualified.

After each race, all teams must return to the boarding area without delay. All equipment must be left on the boat and returned to the official in good order. Those who fail to return promptly will be penalized. If in the opinion of the official, equipment has been damaged deliberately by a team, the Hong Kong Amateur Dragon Boat Association Ltd. (the "Organizer") reserves the right to demand the team in question to pay for the cost of repair or replacement.

Once the official race results are announced, it is finalized. No appeal will be accepted.

All teams must follow the instructions given by the officials during the entire racing event to ensure safety and to avoid interference or inconvenience to others.

If tropical typhoon warning signal no. 3 or above or red/black storm warning signal is hoisted or announced by the Hong Kong Observatory at or before 6 a.m. on the event day, the racing event will be cancelled and enrollment fees will not be refunded.

Each participant shall be solely responsible for his or her own safety at all
